THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Exodus 32: 1-14

Reader: Paul Boëda

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.” Aaron said to them, “Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.” So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!” When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, “Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD.” They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel. The LORD said to Moses, “Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!’” The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.” But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, “O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, ‘It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth’? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’” And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

PSALM

106: 1-6, 19-23

*Cantor first, then all sing the refrain.
The Choir sings the verses, and the congregation joins in singing the refrain*

Mode 1

Refrain

De - clare the migh - ty acts of God our Sa - vior.

from Gradual Psalms for the RCL, ed. Bruce E. Ford, Church Publishing Incorporated

Hallelujah! Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, *
for his mercy endures for ever.
Who can declare the mighty acts of the LORD *
or show forth all his praise?

Refrain

Happy are those who act with justice *
and always do what is right!
Remember me, O LORD, with the favour you have for your people, *
and visit me with your saving help;
That I may see the prosperity of your elect and be glad with the gladness of your people,*
that I may glory with your inheritance.

Refrain

We have sinned as our forebears did; *
we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.
Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb *
and worshiped a molten image;
And so they exchanged their Glory *
for the image of an ox that feeds on grass.

Refrain

They forgot God their Saviour, *
who had done great things in Egypt,
Wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, *
and fearful things at the Red Sea.

So he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, *

to turn away his wrath from consuming them.

Refrain

THE SECOND READING

Philippians 4: 1-9

Reader: Norreen Baker-Hall

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

GOSPEL

Matthew 22: 1-14

Gospeller The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.’ But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

ANTHEM Johannes Brahms

Let nothing ever grieve thee, distress thee, nor fret thee;
heed God's good will,
my soul compose thee.

Why brood all day in sorrow?
Tomorrow will bring thee God's help benign,
and grace sublime in mercy.

Be true in all endeavor and ever ply bravely;
what God decrees brings joy and peace,
He'll stay thee. Amen.

THE PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION page 247

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant Almighty and everliving God,
All we most heartily thank thee that thou dost graciously feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; assuring us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are living members of his mystical body, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom.

And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee. And although we are unworthy, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Visiting children are most welcome.
- ❖ A selection of the Rector's recent sermons can be found on the website at www.anglicanecathedralcalgary.ca/Sermons
- ❖ Candlelight Vespers is offered at the cathedral on Thursdays at 6 pm October through April. The service is based on the ancient monastic rite sung at the close of the day. Led by the cathedral choir, the service is sung in its entirety. It is a time for reflection and recollection in which you can be restful in the presence of God and delight in the serenity of the cathedral's surroundings. Please join us at the end of the work day for a beautiful, contemplative half-hour service of chant, silence, and candlelight.

Upcoming Events

- ❖ The Fellowship Harvest Lunch is next Sunday, October 16, following the 10:30am service. Once again we are asking parishioners to provide food. There is a poster in the narthex indicating the types of dishes that are still required. The cost of the dinner is $6 per person or $12 per family. Everyone is welcome.
- ❖ A Choral Festival Service will be held at Grace Presbyterian Church on Sunday, October 16 at 6pm as part of the Calgary Organ Festival (October 16–22). Five Calgary choirs and one from Edmonton will participate, singing solo items and coming together as a massed choir. Come and experience the sound of hundreds of voices joining together in song! - ❖ Feed the Hungry will be held on Sunday, November 13 at St. Mary's Cathedral Parish Hall. We are always in need of volunteers for this important event. Speak to Vernon Nash if you are able to help.

The Patronal Festival

- ❖ The Patronal Festival will be on Sunday, November 20. This year we are extremely thrilled to have renowned concert organist and composer David Briggs as our guest artist. At the 10:30 Choral Eucharist, the choir will give the North American premiere of Mr. Briggs's Messe pour Saint Sulpice. This mass was co-commissioned by the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer and All Saints Church, Northampton (UK). It was given its world premiere in Paris at Saint Sulpice in May, 2011, but the performance at the Patronal Festival will be the first time the composer has played the organ part. This will be a major and historic service in the life of the Cathedral. Please spread the word, and invite your friends and family.
- ❖ David Briggs will play a recital on Sunday afternoon, after which there will be a wine and cheese reception. Many of us were amazed and thrilled at Mr. Briggs's recital here last October and we're so happy he is able to return for a repeat engagement. If you missed him last year, don't miss him this year! The time of the recital will be announced shortly.
