

THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY after PENTECOST

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

13th November, 2011

CHORAL EUCHARIST

10:30 am

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer.

We are happy to have you with us. This service is part of our ongoing life of worship, learning and service. We are here to deepen our relationship with God and with one another, and to explore how to live our lives more fully and compassionately. Please let us know more about you by completing a welcome card which can be found in the pews and placing it in the offering plate or handing it to any usher.

*The order of service is found in the Green Book of Alternative Services
The asterisk () indicates when the congregations kneels

ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

The Celebrant and Choir enter in silence

Celebrant Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping:
those who have died for their country in war;
those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;
and all who have lived and died in the service of mankind.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant Almighty and eternal God,
from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted,
either by death or life:
hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day;
fulfil in them the purpose of your love;
and bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

ACT OF COMMITMENT

Celebrant Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and our fellow men and women:
that we may help, encourage, and comfort others,
and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

All

Lord God our Father, we pledge ourselves
to serve you and mankind,
in the cause of peace,
for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of your name.
Guide us by your Spirit;
give us wisdom;
give us courage;
give us hope;
and keep us faithful
now and always. Amen.

As the Altar Party enters the chancel the choir sings

THE INTROIT

Douglas Guest (1916-1996)

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

-from 'For the Fallen' Laurence Binyon (1869-1943)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

page 392

Celebrant

Almighty God,
you sent your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of the world.
Free us from all that darkens and ensnares us,
and bring us to eternal light and joy;
through the power of him who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People

Amen.

FIRST READING

Judges 4: 1-7

Reader: Christine Sutherland

The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died. So the LORD sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-goim. Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years. At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgment. She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, “The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you, ‘Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun. I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin’s army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.’”

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Choir sings the verses and the Congregation sings the refrain where indicated

Mode 2

Refrain

Our eyes look to the Lord our God, from whom we seek mer - cy.

from Gradual Psalms for the RCL, ed. Bruce E. Ford, Church Publishing Incorporated

To you I lift up my eyes, *
to you enthroned in the heavens.

Refrain

As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, * and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes look to the LORD our God, *
until he show us his mercy.

Refrain

Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy, *
for we have had more than enough of contempt,

Too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, *
and of the derision of the proud.

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 5: 1-11

Reader: Reg Paul

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Reader The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL

Matthew 25: 14-30

Gospeller The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

ANTHEM William Byrd (c. 1540-1623)

Ave, verum corpus natum
de Maria Virgine:
vere passum, immolatum
in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum
unda fluxit et sanguine:
esto nobis praegustatum,
in mortis examine.

*Hail the true body, born of the Virgin Mary:
You who truly suffered and were sacrificed on the cross for the sake of man.
From whose pierced flank
flowed water and blood:
Be a foretaste for us
in the trial of death.*

THE PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

page 247

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant Almighty and everliving God,

All we most heartily thank thee that thou dost graciously feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; assuring us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are living members of his mystical body, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom.

And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee. And although we are unworthy, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Stewardship

- ❖ The 2012 Stewardship Packs were mailed out this past week. If you do not receive one, please contact the office. We are facing a significant challenge this year and it is crucial that we significantly increase our congregational giving this year. Please prayerfully and seriously consider what you can do to help us reach our goal.
- ❖ The Starbucks Pledge: "What Sacrifice can I make?" asks Father Lee. "Here are the true facts of my Starbucks consumption: 2 grande coffees weekdays at $2.26 each; 1 grande coffee on Saturday and Sunday at $2.26. This equals $27.12 per week or $1,410.24 per year. That is my personal expense for Starbucks! So guess what? No Starbucks for me next year..."
- ❖ $5.00 a Week: A $5.00 weekly gift is welcome, but it covers less than 1/1300th of the cost of parish operations. It would cover our current costs if we had 8 times more members than we do now.

Parish Communications

- ❖ Many of you received our parish email. We're very excited that we have this new tool to help us keep in touch better. Many thanks to People's Warden Jamie Hutchison for spearheading this project. If you have not received an email from the Cathedral office and would like to, please send Eva Rudolf an email at office@anglican Cathedralcalgary.ca and we will have your name added to our distribution list.

The Patronal Festival

- ❖ The Patronal Festival will be on Sunday, November 20. This year we are extremely thrilled to have renowned concert organist and composer David Briggs as our guest artist. At the 10:30 Choral Eucharist, the choir will give the North American premiere of Mr. Briggs's Messe pour Saint Sulpice. This mass was co-commissioned by the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer and All Saints Church, Northampton (UK). The performance at the Patronal Festival will be the first time the composer has played the organ part. This will be a major and historic service in the life of the Cathedral. Please spread the word, and invite your friends and family.
- ❖ David Briggs will also play a recital on Sunday, November 20 at 3:00pm. His program will include transcriptions of 'Nimrod' from the Enigma Variations by Elgar and the 'Waltz of the Flowers' from The Nutcracker by Tchaikovsky as well as organ works by Bach, Haydn, Franck and Duruflé and an improvisation on themes submitted by the audience. The recital is free of charge. A reception with cash bar will follow. Many of us were amazed and thrilled at Mr. Briggs's recital here last October and we're so happy he is able to return for a repeat engagement. If you missed him last year, don't miss him this year!

Music, Liturgy and Christian Education

- ❖ Sunday School welcomes all children ages 3 and older. The children go to their classes after the Collect of the Day and return in time for Communion. If you are a regular parishioner, but have missed registering your child for Sunday School, we ask that you accompany them to the room and fill out the registration form. Visiting children are most welcome.
- ❖ A selection of the Rector's recent sermons can be found on the website at www.anglican Cathedralcalgary.ca/Sermons

- ❖ Candlelight Vespers is offered at the cathedral on Thursdays at 6 pm October through April. The service is based on the ancient monastic rite sung at the close of the day. Led by the cathedral choir, the service is sung in its entirety. It is a time for reflection and recollection in which you can be restful in the presence of God and delight in the serenity of the cathedral's surroundings. Please join us at the end of the work day for a beautiful, contemplative half-hour service of chant, silence, and candlelight.

Upcoming

- ❖ The Fellowship Advent Lunch will be on December 4 following the 10:30 service. The menu will be beef on a bun, with salad and dessert, and vegetarian casseroles. We are looking for donations for some of the food. If you are able to contribute, please take a sticky note from the poster in the Narthex, so that we can see how well we are doing. The cost is $6 per person, or $12 per family, if you can afford it. All are welcome!
